

RSCA COVID-19 Research Impact Report: October 2023 Update

Christopher Zorn (CLA)

October 17, 2023

COVID Research Impact Surveys

- Sampling frame: All research-active faculty, staff, and graduate students ($N \approx 11000$)
- Key items:
 - Research Productivity (0-100 scale) (retrospective)
 - Reasons for productivity changes
 - Utilization of Penn State's COVID-related resources
- Also: Professional + demographic information + open-ended questions

Table 1: Survey Details

Survey	Administration Dates	Valid N
2020 Survey	12/9/2020 - 1/25/2021	3056
2021 Survey	12/1/2021 - 1/15/2022	1615
2022 Survey	3/30/2023 - 5/7/2023	1078

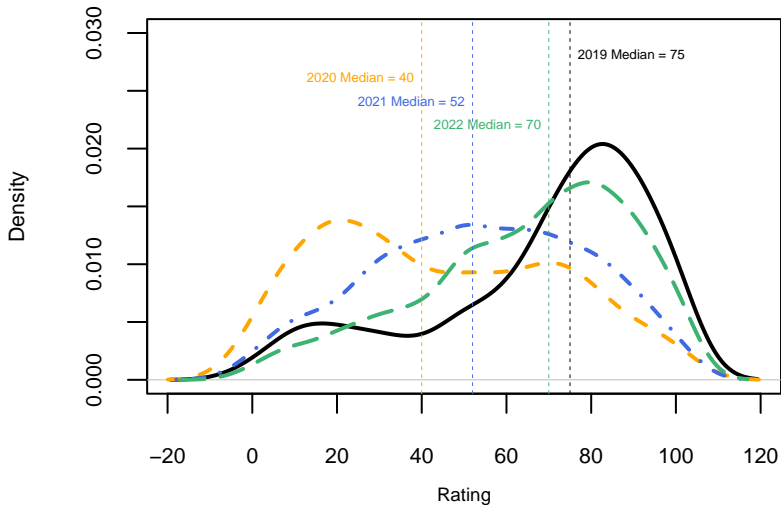

Figure 1: Research Productivity Ratings: 2019-2022
(from 2022 Survey)

What's next?

- Report due to full Senate during AY 2023-24
- Current report draft is:
 - Incomplete
 - \approx 50 pages
 - Probably not in its final (organizational) form
 - Missing 2022-23 data
- Help?
 - Requires R / RMarkdown familiarity
 - Input on organization + data viz

These slides are available at <http://bit.ly/RSCA-COVID19>.

For more information, e-mail zorn@psu.edu.